

PORTAGER

A Natural Place to Move

A Message from Mayor Patricia M. Randall

Human emotions are complex and involve physiological, psychological and behavioral responses. They are the fundamental part of the human experience that influence our thoughts, actions and interactions with others. Fear and sorrow are near the top of the list of human emotions and have the power to unite us all.

As our country tuned in, we were horrified by the July 4 tragedy in Kerr County, Texas as the Guadalupe River rose 26 feet due to heavy rainfall. The loss of so many children while attending summer camp moved each of us. Watching family members respond as they learned that their loved one was one of the 135 people who had drowned was heartbreaking. We have all witnessed extreme weather and changing climate patterns. But still I ask, "How could this happen?"

Today we know that warning systems were triggered too late, if at all. There was no one at the helm to even make the call. That's a lot of missing parts with the technology we possess today. Serving as your Mayor, this led me to question what the City of Portage has in place to alert our citizens and their families in the event of an emergency.

We know the power of advance warning. The city's public alert system includes sixteen sirens strategically placed throughout the community (see map). The system began with just one siren in the 1960s, was upgraded in the 1970s to four sirens and again in the 1980s following the Kalamazoo tornado to the current network of sixteen. The sirens, which cost about $30,000 each, are tested on the first Saturday of every month at 1 PM and are maintained through a contract with a service provider in Allendale, Michigan. Should an emergency arise, they are activated by the Kalamazoo County Consolidated Dispatch Authority (KCCDA), our 911 call center that operates 24/7.

Portage also adopted PortageAlert in 2014. Any citizen can sign up for emergency alerts and the city will then send notification via text directly to their mobile phone. During our tornado last year, I learned that this system works around the world. To sign up for PortageAlert, please visit portagemi.gov/PortageAlert. Independent of the city – but still useful – are the many apps available to notify you of weather emergencies.

There are always lessons to be learned. The first, "emergency preparedness" begins well before any storm. Going forward, this community will forever experience sorrow for the lives lost while appreciating the ability to prevent tragedy via emergency alerts that technology has made possible.

Current city leadership and those serving before us deserve our thanks for budgeting for sirens, consolidating far-flung dispatch centers (in 2018) and for investing in PortageAlert. Those actions make our community safer today. I hope you can sleep more peacefully knowing this.

– Patricia M. Randall

Smart Sign Placement

The City of Portage is committed to maintaining the appearance of its neighborhoods, public spaces, and infrastructure. To prevent blight caused by unauthorized signs, the city enforces regulations (Portage Code of Ordinances, Sec. 42-543) to preserve the aesthetic and functionality of its streets. While businesses and residents have the right to display temporary signs, the size and placement of signs, not the content, is regulated.

At any time, on any residential lot (those with a principal single-family residential use) temporary signs that total not more than six square feet may be posted. A typical yard sign is three square feet, so up to two such signs are allowed any time on any residential lot.

Election Season Signs

Temporary signs are most common during election season, when residents and businesses exercise their right to free speech by showing support for candidates, causes, and ballot proposals. To balance these rights with the community's need for safety and aesthetics, the City of Portage allows greater flexibility during this period. For the 45 days before and five days after an election, all properties may display up to 40 square feet of temporary signage. This allowance helps ensure everyone has the opportunity to participate in the democratic process while keeping sign usage clear and consistent.

Temporary signs in any zoning district cannot be placed in the public right-of-way, in medians, on park property or any other city-owned property.

Where Signs Are Not Allowed

Signs are not allowed in the public right-of-way (the strip between the curb and sidewalk), medians, park property, or any city-owned property.

Attaching signs to poles, utility equipment, or traffic systems is also prohibited. These signs can damage infrastructure, create traffic hazards, block storm drains, and pose safety risks to utility workers.

Like graffiti or litter, sign blight creates a negative impression. Help maintain Portage's reputation as a clean, welcoming community by avoiding illegal signage. Let's work together to keep Portage litter free and ensure it remains A Natural Place to Move!

Portage Road 360 Final Open House – September 25

The Portage Road 360 design project is entering its final stretch, and the City of Portage invites you to attend the last community open house on Thursday, September 25, from 5:30 to 7 PM at the Portage Zhang Senior Center, 203 East Centre Avenue.

At this event, you'll have the chance to:

- » Explore the updated design concepts for the North, Core, and South sections of Portage Road.
- » See how community feedback has influenced the plans.
- » Share your thoughts before the design process concludes.

Since the June workshop, where the preliminary corridor designs were first unveiled, the city has continued gathering feedback through focus groups, a mailed letter to corridor property owners, and an online survey promoted on the city website, social media, and in the August newsletter. Thank you to everyone who shared their input—your comments are helping project engineers refine the next round of designs and shape the future of this important corridor. These updated concepts will be presented at the Portage Road 360 Open House on September 25.

This is the final workshop in the planning process to weigh in on the future road plans for Portage Road. Whether you live, work, or travel along the corridor, your perspective is important. We hope to see you there!

Portage Public Safety Ready for the New School Year

As the 2025–2026 school year begins, the Portage Department of Public Safety reaffirms its commitment to fostering a safe, secure, and welcoming environment for all students, staff, and families in the Portage community. With Portage Public Schools serving more than 8,800 students across 14 buildings – and standing as one of the city's largest employers – the department plays a vital role in supporting educational success through safety and preparedness.

Central to this mission is the department's School Resource Officer (SRO) program, which places trained officers within school buildings to build positive relationships, ensure security, and serve as first responders when needed.

Returning to his role at Portage Northern High School is Officer Burleson, a familiar and trusted presence known for his dedication and strong connections with students and staff alike. In this role, Officer Burleson also serves at the Portage Community High School, North Middle School, Amberly Elementary, Haverhill Elementary, 12th Street Elementary, and Angling Elementary. His ongoing service provides continuity and confidence for the Northern community.

School Resource Officer Burleson

School Resource Officer Garrison

Joining the team this year is Officer Garrison, who will serve as the new SRO at Portage Central High School. Officer Garrison brings energy, professionalism, and a strong desire to become an integral part of the Central family. Like Officer Burleson, Officer Garrison also serves at Central Middle School, West Middle School, Central Elementary, Lake Center Elementary, Moorsbridge Elementary, and Woodland Elementary. His goal is to build trust, promote safety, and be a resource students can count on throughout the year.

The Portage Department of Public Safety acknowledges the increasing national concern around school safety, particularly in light of the rise in school-related violence across the country. The presence of SROs is a key component in the district's comprehensive approach to prevention and emergency response. These officers are not only there to handle incidents, they also act as mentors, educators, and everyday role models.

By working closely with students, faculty, and school administrators, SROs help identify early warning signs and de-escalate issues before they disrupt the learning environment. With the growing influence of social media and digital communication, early intervention is more important than ever. Portage SROs are trained to assess concerns swiftly and take appropriate steps to protect the well-being of the school community.

The department's ongoing partnership with Portage Public Schools underscores its long-standing dedication to serving and protecting the city's youth. As the new school year kicks off, the Portage Department of Public Safety is proud to stand ready – supporting safe schools, strong communities, and a brighter future for all.

Back to School Safety

Tips for a Safe Start to the School Year

As summer draws to a close and the back-to-school season begins, it's time for students, parents, and drivers to refresh their awareness of important safety guidelines. Whether children walk, bike, ride the bus, or are driven to school, ensuring they travel safely is a top priority.

Here are key safety tips to help protect students as they return to classrooms this fall:

For Walkers

Walking to school can be a healthy and enjoyable way for children to start the day, but safety should always come first:

- » Encourage children to walk with a buddy whenever possible.
- » Talk to them about "stranger danger" – remind them never to talk to or accept rides from strangers. Consider establishing a secret safe word known only to you and your child for emergencies.
- » Always use sidewalks. If there is no sidewalk, walk facing traffic.
- » Before crossing the street, teach children to look left, right, and left again, and only cross when it is safe.
- » Always cross at crosswalks or intersections, and make eye contact with drivers before stepping into the street.

For Bike Riders

Biking is another great way for kids to commute, but it comes with its own set of rules:

- » Ride on the right side of the road, going with the flow of traffic.
- » Stop completely before crossing streets and walk bikes across intersections.
- » Stay alert at all times and avoid using earbuds or phones while riding.
- » Always wear a properly fitted helmet and dress in bright, reflective clothing for visibility.

For Bus Riders

Riding the bus is one of the safest ways for children to travel to school. Make sure they understand how to stay safe around the bus:

- » Accompany your child to the bus stop to show them how to board and exit safely.
- » Remind them to stand at least 6 feet back from the curb while waiting.
- » If crossing in front of the bus, children should walk far enough ahead to make eye contact with the driver before stepping into the road.
- » Stay seated and respectful on the bus to avoid distracting the driver.

If You're Driving Your Child to School

Drivers play a critical role in keeping school zones safe. Here's what you need to know:

- » Always obey school zone speed limits and follow posted drop-off and pick-up procedures.
- » Never pass a school bus that is loading or unloading children. Yellow flashing lights mean slow down; red flashing lights mean stop – whether you are behind, meeting, or approaching a bus at an intersection.
- » Stop for school crossing guards when they are holding a stop sign.
- » The area within 10 feet around a school bus is the most dangerous for children. Give plenty of space to allow safe entry and exit.
- » Make eye contact with children crossing in front of your vehicle to ensure they see you.
- » And finally, remember Michigan's distracted driving law is now in effect. Drivers may not manually use a cellphone or other device for texting, calling, video chatting, checking GPS, or using social media while driving.

A Safe Start for Everyone

Starting the school year with a focus on safety helps set the tone for months to come. Whether you're a parent, student, or driver, taking a few extra moments to be cautious can make all the difference.

Let's work together to keep our kids and our community safe this school year.

Fall Leaf Pickup Program Kicks Off October 27

The annual Fall Leaf Pickup Program will run from October 27 through December 5 and includes the collection of leaves along public streets. The city is divided into eight pickup zones, a change that was introduced last year to better accommodate leaf volumes.

Each zone will receive three collections or until weather conditions prevent further pickup. The schedule and map below show the pickup dates for all eight zones.

Collection dates and a convenient address locator tool are also available at portagemi.gov/282.

This program does not include commercial establishments, churches, schools, or private streets (unless all property owners on the street have signed an indemnification form).

- Place leaves at the curb by 7 AM on your scheduled pickup date. Crews follow a strict daily route and cannot return for leaves placed out late.
- ONLY loose leaves or leaves bagged in biodegradable paper yard waste bags will be collected. Leaves in plastic bags (including biodegradable plastic bags) will not be collected.
- Rake loose leaves off the grass and into the street. Bagged leaves should be placed near the curb, as close to the street edge as possible, without blocking traffic or bike lanes.
- Please note, the Fall Leaf Pickup Program is separate from the Quarterly Curbside Brush Collection Program (see previous page for details). After the third and final collection, public streets will be swept, weather permitting.
- There is no burn period in Portage. The burning of leaves is not permitted at any time.

Keep the City Right-of-Way Clear for Safe and Efficient Service

To keep Portage streets safe and ensure efficient collection services, residents are reminded not to place objects in the city right-of-way. Common obstructions include portable basketball hoops, trash and recycling carts, and other personal items.

The city right-of-way is the area between the curb and the sidewalk. For properties without sidewalks, it extends 33 feet from the center of the roadway. According to the Portage Code of Ordinances (Chapter 66, Article 1, Section 66-2), placing objects in this area is prohibited.

Why does this matter? Items in the right-of-way:

- Block collection of leaves, brush, trash, and recycling.
- Interfere with snow plowing and street sweeping.
- Pose a risk of damage to both personal property and city equipment.

To help avoid these issues:

- Position permanent items, such as basketball hoops, at least 33 feet from the center of the road.
- Place trash and recycling carts at the curb, not in the street.
- Keep bike lanes and sidewalks clear of leaves, brush, and containers.

Your cooperation helps Public Works crews safely deliver essential services to every neighborhood. For more information, contact the Department of Public Works at 329-4444.

PC vs NK Rivalry for a Cause

The Portage Central Mustangs and Portage Northern Huskies are gearing up for their biggest game of the season on Friday, October 10 – but this year, the competition starts long before kickoff.

Now through October 9, fans can show their school spirit by dropping off non-perishable food donations at Portage City Hall (7900 South Westnedge Avenue), Monday through Thursday from 7:30 AM to 5:30 PM and on Fridays from 8 AM - 12 PM. When you donate, place your items in the Mustangs bin or the Huskies bin to give your team the edge.

At stake? Bragging rights in the ultimate community challenge. The team with the most donations will be crowned the champion – but when it comes to fighting hunger, the whole community wins. All food collected will be distributed to Twelve Baskets, helping families across Portage.

Popular donation items include canned vegetables and fruit, peanut butter, pasta, rice, cereal, and other shelf-stable goods (please, no glass or expired items).

So, whether you're rooting for Central or Northern, step up for your team and your city. Let's see who can pack the pantry – and the stands – this fall.
